My Big Sister

February 5, 2008

To My BIG Sis Irene LaPlante

How I wish that we could have had more time together, but I will NEVER forget the time we did have together. You are and FOREVER will be my BIG Sister. I miss you dearly and I think about you every day. Although we had not been in contact in the last several years, I thought about you all the time. Talked about you. I have my many regrets, but I know that I will be with you again some day in heaven. When I was growing up I always looked up to you. You were so, so beautiful, confident, funny, and so many other things. I always told everyone about my beautiful big sister Irene! I remember so many times you would come see me and Racheal and you and Stacy would take us out. There was a while in 1996 that we couldn't be torn apart. Many nights we just stayed up talking and laughing the night away. We finally got to be close sisters and share our every thought, fears, what made us happy or sad, we didn't leave a thing out. and I will always cherish those times. Although it hurts that I don't have more memories, I will forever thank God that he gave us those times. I'm lucky to have shared that time with you!! I Love You and Miss You!!

You are now with the Lord and you are one of his Angels. Your Memory and Spirit will always be with all of us!!

Love Your Little Sister Kimmy LaPlante

Krissie

Irene I will never forget you.

A Face In The Clouds:

I looked towards the clouds today
and for a moment saw your face
And wondered just where you have gone
with a hope it's a better place

Did you show yourself to me today
to tell me you're alright?
Or was it just a daydream
playing tricks upon my sight

Then I thought of when you left
you did not say a word
No hugs and kisses..
no good-bye was heard

You have changed our lives forever
Your time here not in vain
and hope you know we always tried to keep you safe from pain

We will always feel the void inside
because you are not here
But each new thought you send our way
let's us know you're always near

So until our journey nears it's end
And we hear the angels sing
We'll face each new day as it comes and live off the love you bring

little cousin

Little Cousin Irene,

I know that we may be cousin's but as we grew as a child you was always like a little sister to me. We all use to spend alot of time together when we all lived in your grandfathers house in Rochester, Jody, Jerry, Krssie, Joey and myself it was so much fun even when we all would yell at Joey for playing the same old record (Great Balls Of Fire). Some times you would come and spend time at my house on locust st. I could go on and on there are so many wonderful memories of you and I wish very much that we could have them today, You are home now with my dad uncle Dave, Grandma Houghton, your grandma & grandpa wonderful people and so many aunts and uncles you will be very love and looked after . you are always in our hearts and memories love you always.

A simple prayer

January 28, 2008

Father God, Thank You for always being there for me no matter what I face. I know You will never fail me, even in my most intense trials. I have not always understood why I was going through certain things; however, I do not have to understand, because You are God and You are in control, in spite of my lack of understanding. I know that all You require of me is to trust You, and look to You in faith and You will come and save me, and bring me an answer. You always have, and You always will, because you are faithful. You never fail any of us who look to You. I have failed You, Lord, by my doubt and unbelief at times, but You have never failed me. Lord, please remove all the sorrow and grief I feel. Heal this pain I feel in my heart and help me to trust You more. Fill this empty place in my heart with more of Your Spirit. I ask this in the name of the Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen

To a beloved friend, I will miss you dearly, i'll miss your beautiful smile and the way you used to make me laugh. YOU WILL ALWAYS BE IN MY HEART....

The background is a textured, mottled olive-green or taupe color. In the upper center, there are two roses. The one on the right is larger and more open, while the one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed. Both roses are rendered in a light, almost ethereal tone, blending into the background. The word "Memories" is written in a large, elegant, white script font, centered horizontally and partially overlapping the roses.

Krissie

I remember that you told me you would always be around. I can't believe this month is your birthday and you are not here. I keep hoping this is not true. I jump when the phone rings hoping you will be on the other line, laughing at me and telling me you are ok. I wish I could go back and tell you everything. I needed you so much in the last year and i couldn't find you. Then you found me again and then you were gone again.. This time not to come back. I am not sure how long I can go on thinking that this is not real. My heart is so broken I don't think it can be fixed. I can only fake like I am ok. I don't trust anything or anyone anymore. Remember that time when the family wasn't talking to me for like 5 years and you for like a year or so.

You and I still hung out. You never cared what anyone thought. God, how much I miss you even though you could be a pain in my butt sometimes. What a mess our lives are.....I wish you could tell me what the hell went wrong...

Jordan.

Mom.

Everyday i'ts hitting me harder that your never comeing back.I miss you. Every time i read your letter i cry &cry. I'm happy I now have your ashes but i wish i had you instead. Aunty Krissie & Uncle Bobby are amazing people and im sure you are already aware of that but without them Alize &I would be lost with all of this. I try to talk to you sometimes but its hard because i still cant beleive it.I wish i could call Matts house and you would anwser so i could talk to you again and ask you for advice .When i lay in bed i think about all we used to do amd it herts so bad because you were almost here, you were doing GREAT and I really believed in you.I love you so much.

Sam

Miss you auntie..all the fun we had, you were the best aunt.

Krissie

I miss you so much. I just want you back. Remember the time we went roller blading in Fairhaven. Some how we came out on rte 6 in Matt. it was so hot and we had run out of water. You just took off your skates and went barefoot into Mike's rest. and asked for a large glass of water with 2 straws. When you came out i couldn't believe they had given it to you. we sat on the side walk and drank water and laughed so hard. then we were like "oh sh@#" we have to make it all the way back...but we did and we kept laughing the whole way.....

Jordan

My Favorite Memory with you Mom is just always having fun whatever we did .. When you took me to get my nails done for the 1st time :) & When You Alize and I would eat as much junk food as possible , rent movies then all jump into your big bed and laugh and talk all night until we fell asleep. 🥹 God i miss you so much .. i wish we could all just do that one more time ..

My hardest memory was seeing you laying in the hospital bed , I couldnt believe my eyes .. Seeing the strongest person I know laying hopelessly .. At that moment i needed you the most just to hold me and tell me everything is going to be ok .. but i knew it wasnt .. 🙏

I love you so much mom and my memories are what give me the strenght i need .. i miss you and always will because you cant see Alize and I grow up and I know thats what you wanted the most .. I MISS YOU.

Krissie

My heart is breaking. I just got my phone bill with all the calls from you on it 9 in total. God how I wish I could turn back the clock. I miss you and your calls so much. I can't believe it still.

I love you

Your Oldest Babygirl , Jordan

Mommy, Oh how i miss you .. i cant begin to explain , its hard to share because i feel so much pain, How could this happen ? How could this be real? All i want to do is hold you and never let go, But i have to face it my mommys gone and i have to move on.. But why? i'll never understand why god didnt give you just one last chance, Nor why he had to take my mommy away from me and my little sister, My throat burns and my tears flow because i know i have to let go .. I just want you here though so i can tell you one last time , You mean everything to me, but now im left lonley and sad to sit here and think Your gone .. your really gone .. but one thing I know and i wish i could tell you one last time is I love you mom until the end of time xoxo

Deborah (Houghton) Tillson

we all lived on walnut plain road your grandads house and he had a goat there and geeses ,dogs ,cats we all wouldgo out side and play ,chase the goat around the tree and then we all would sit around the big tree in the front yard and talk about what we'er going to do next. some times we would go for a walk to visit the horses next door to us and then some of us kids would ride the dirt bike ,have barbaquesbut one day all us girls was in the up stairs bedroom playin games and then the door fell on my head and you & Krissie laughed so hard at me poor Jody was so worried that i was hurt but it did not end there we went down stairs to make a peanutbutter and jelly sandwhich and Jody started making prank calls to people saying my mommy aint home and i am hungry and i don't know how to make a peanutbutter sandwhich she did it almost all night then we made a fire in the fireplace and we burnt up your mom rollers for there were in the fireplace and we did not know it until we saw them burning,the best was always picking on Joey about that record. there is so many memories to share love you

Your sister..

The LORD is my shepherd,
I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside quiet waters.

He restores my soul;
He guides me in the paths of righteousness
For His name's sake.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no evil, for You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You have anointed my head with oil;
My cup overflows.

Surely goodness and lovingkindness will follow me all the days of my life,
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever

Psalm 23

Mom

To my beautiful special baby girl, I remember the night you were born, and how you got the name you carried through your life. Most recently how we walked through the cemetery reading the stones, and how you felt when you were denied the very things you loved the most. Your daughters, Mommy held you when you cried and when you were happy. I have lost a part of me that no one could ever know unless they have lost a child. I just want to give your daughters what they want and spare them the agony that goes with all the final details. And please let them know in their hearts that granma would never keep them from anything. Mommy cannot sleep or eat and I cry all the time until I can do what you wished. Jody, Jerry, Joe, And Crocket are very sad, that it is all going this way.

Krissie

A Fond Farewell

If I should leave this world
Without a warning,
And not even whisper a fond farewell,
Grieve not for one more message
From the lips that God has stilled.
But just remember me with love
And prayers for my soul's journey
To that far land beyond life's tears.

For I have believed with all my heart

In its existence, and I know that

God is good, for He has come to me

Through the life of Him whose very

Garment I have sought to touch.

It may be lonely, and I hope you miss me

Just a little, because I have loved so deeply.

Forgive me if I have ever hurt you

And remember me for what I longed to be.

Have faith that I am nearer than

Your dreams and fondest longings.

For the God of love shall keep all

Kindred spirits close together,

Though the misty vale between

This would and that to come

Keep us from each other's sight

For a few precious moments.

Whisper softly that you love me

And it shall linger on within my soul

Until you come.

Say not good-bye,

For on some bright tomorrow

We shall meet again.

Two roses are positioned in the upper right quadrant of the image. The rose on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing its petals. Both are rendered in a soft, painterly style that blends into the background.
